

Completed 5 Days Long Leadership and Utility Management Training for 3rd Phase Small Towns:

Five dayslong 'Leadership and Utility Management Training' for WUSC/Sub-Committee women members were organized at National Water Supply and Sanitation Training Center (NWSSTC), Nagarkot. First event conducted from 26-30 January 2020; where 22 participants from different 3rd phase 8 small towns were participated and next event conducted from 02 - 06 February 2020; where 41 participants from different 9 small towns were participated from . Altogether 63 participants from 17 small towns and all participants were female.

The major areas of discussion and highlighted in training program were; Water Quality & Water Safety Plan, WASH Sector Legislations & Policies, Provision of GESI, Leadership Skill, Community Management and Participation, Balance Sheet, Cash/Fund Flow, Scheme Management, Water Demand, Supply & NRW, Business Plan, Grievance Handling, Operation & Management , Cost Sharing & Cost Recovery, Water Tariff-basis & Calculation etc.

The methodologies used in the program were; Lectures, Question & Answer, Discussion, Presentation, Experience Sharing.

Mr. Bidya Nath Bhattarai-PD, Mr. Ram Kumar Shrestha-DPD, Mr. Tapta Bahadur Rawal-Sociologist, Mr. Yam Narayan Sharma-Acc. Officer from Small Towns; PMO, Mr. Rajit Ojha-SDE from Ministry of WS; Mr. Kabindra Bikram Karki and Mr. Kamal Adhikari from NWSSTC; Mr. Suvas Raj Panta from TDF were the key resource persons involved in the program.

Both training program completed successfully with the active participation of participants and the resource persons. The participants expressed their suggestions; they were very grateful and express sincerely thanks towards the organizer for organizing such type of program. They also request and strongly suggest, this type of training, seminar and orientation workshop program will be conducted in timely. Near future such type of training and awareness program will be conduct on time.

Group Photo of Event - 1

Group Photo of Event - 2